JEFFREY MADDEN 1980-1998

We love you Jeffy!

The Class of 1999 will never forget you!

"Near or apart - You're in our hearts!"

It was a bad night
And something wasn't right,
Stuff went really wrong,
And now you're gone.

We wish you were here
To wipe away our tears -
You kept us going strong
All those years long.

You were more than just a friend
And now it's the end
You'll be in our hearts
Whether you're near or apart.

I love you always,
Jaclyn Rotundi

Senior Class Advisors

Ms. Picard & Mr. Hart

Ms. Picard and Mr. Hart . . . What an experience we have had together! We, the Class of '99 would like to give you an infinite amount of "Thank You's" for "Once Upon A Time" having taken us under your wings and blessed us with your inner spirit, passionate dedication to our class, undying creativity, and amazing bursts of energy. Your ever-present confidence that we could achieve anything out of the ordinary if we worked together as a tight-knit group has allowed us to become the well-rounded seniors that we are. You believed in us. You provided us with the guidance that we so seeked as Freshmen and as Seniors and with your philosophy of having fun. You, with your youthful attitudes and hearts, truly "partied along with us like it was 1999" for four years straight! We thank you with all our hearts for this and as we graduate from MHS, we give you, too, your hard-earned diplomas as The Best Class Advisors of the Century!

To the Class of 1999:

We would like to record here in the 1999 LOG some facts that should not be lost to antiquity. First, did you know that Ms. Jan Johnston and Mr. Hart had scoped out your class two years before you ever set foot in the high school? Even as seventh graders you people had engendered such high praise from your teachers that when you "crossed the bridge" in September of 1995, Ms. Johnston and Mr. Hart, brand-new advisors, had already claimed you as "our crew!"

Our first meeting in the Resource Center announced that candidates for class offices would each deliver a campaign address. Man, were we ever popular that September! We had the first ever Freshman Christmas Party—they said it couldn't be done, and you did it—with Mr. Messina presiding as who else—but Santa Claus. (Ms. Johnston accepted an elementary P.E. position where she is very happy and still enjoys news of your happenings.)

Next, it must be recorded that Ms. Meagher-Peterson took Ms. Johnston's place. Ms. Meagher-Peterson is the advisor who saved the Class of '98's junior prom by running home to grab one of her daughter's prom dresses to set right a young lady's night of "distress." Also, we turned MHS into an 18-hole golf course, and Ms. Meagher-Peterson was handling out golf clubs—and, at the same time, studying for her doctorate. (Surely there to greet you at the door of your fifth reunion will be "Dr. Meagher-Peterson.")

Each class strives for a togetherness and a uniqueness. You have achieved them both. We wanted a class that had "class." And we received a group that thanked teachers with poems and donated to Globe Santa. We wanted a class that had spirit. And we got one that found, fixed, and polished all the lost-in-the-closet trophies, and set up a permanent trophy case in the main lobby as well as a remarkable, makeshift trophy display in the Fish Bowl for the first Spirit Week.

Those are just some of the highlights of our time with you, but perhaps nothing epitomizes our highest hopes for your class and our school than the Pep Rallies this year. You were the "stars." You planned, organized, and pulled them off. To look everywhere and see Class of '99 members leading . . . You were fun, humorous, and LOUD. The band, the cheerleaders, the captains, the MCs, the skits, and the spirit—we could see it all come together. You produced Pep Rallies that this school has not seen in decades. What a way to end a century!

Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your lives. It was an honor and pleasure to witness "up close and personal" your growth from quasi-humanoids to the status of seniors of the first rank.

And now - - - well, now . . . you leave us. And as they say in Internet lingo, "Good-bye!":-) &:—)

To the Class of '99 - - - You were special, you are special, and you always will be special to us.

Lata (and Love),
Ms. Picard & Mr. Hart

. . . FOR LAST

The Opening

The Class of 1999! . . . Just the thought of being the last class of the millennium gave us something significant to take pride in, starting from September 1995 when we fearfully scurried into the halls of MHS. Waiting for this magical year seemed forever away and it is only now, as seniors, that the idea has become our reality. We can now look back and remember that by unlocking our minds and engaging full-heartedly our strengths, we have brought out the best in ourselves, our teachers, our friends, and our successors. Much like a safe that keeps a fortune secure until the right time to cash it in, the walls of MHS have done just that, preparing us for our futures. For this reason, we embrace the theme of our yearbook as the culmination of all our school years together. As the last class of the twentieth century to pass thrugh MHS, we have Saved the Best for Last. As we safely look back into our pasts, we can now turn the key to view the treasures that await us in our future.

Throughout our years together, we have strived to stand out as a motivated, hard-working, respectful, and dedicated group. By successfully launching many class events, we managed to raise school spirit, motivate individuals to stay involved, and most importantly, attempted to unify our class by breaking the code of traditional class events. We dared to do things differently. Starting with our first two years in high school, when past classes conformed to being the youngest and therefore not very involved, we took active leadership roles in a variety of school clubs, and held the first ever Freshman Holiday Dance, Sophomore Friday Football, and Golf Par-Tee. We worked together through the painful teacher contract problems during our last two years, stepping in to take full responsibility in running school organizations ourselves and trying to successfully stage events despite obstacles. At every major class function, the Freshman Semi, the Sophomore Valentine's Day Dance, Field Day, The Halloween Dance, the Winter Ball, and both the Junior and Senior Proms, we demonstrated that we as individuals have grown closer as a class. We have opened ourselves to explore the unique people who we are and the successful group that we have become together.

We are the essence of a well-rounded class, quite able to sanely balance excellence in school with extra-curricular activities and social lives. Because of our diverse personalities, interests and talents, we have heightened club involvement and positively initiated change in our classmates and school. We have brought much enthusiasm to learning with the help of many new teachers and proven to ourselves that we are our bests in every aspect of our experience together.

With the same motivation and hard work that we've always exemplified in our four years, we can get the best for our futures. We deserve the best.

We have Saved the Best for Last.
Good Luck, Class of 1999!

Saving The Memories

Looking back on our high school career it is evident that it has been a time for growing and maturing. From the first day of school, as scared, srawny freshmen, to graduation day, decked out in our red gowns and caps, good times have been shared with each member of the class of '99. In the halls, during classes, at dances, proms, and one of a kind class events, memories have been made. As a class, we have done and achieved so much to be proud of. This Student Life section will bring you back in time, allowing all to see, the class of '99 Saving the Memories.

Right: Heather Stewart, Hillary Porter, Leanne Lozzi, and Nicole Babin lick away at their orange-flavored popsicles, seeing how many licks it takes to get to the stick of their pop and who can finish it the quickest in the sweltering heat. Below left: Middle school lunches were all fun and games for Dave Hadden and friends.

WINTER☆BALL

The crowd cheers on Joe Hunt as he transforms into Michael Jackson. After a quick rest Chris DeThomas and Chris Headle are ready to tear up the dance floor. It took no time for Oudi Ojala to get the groove of American dances. Matt Bagley grooves to his favorite song that has just begun to play.

MHS Senior Winter Ball
Saturday, January 23rd
7:30-11:30PM at Memorial Hall
Put on your dancing shoes, Seniors, because we're gonna party like it's 1999!

Carla Barranco and Carly Sullivan take a moment from dancing to embrace in a warm hug of friendship. Kelly Flynn, Tara Luongo and Ramona Stauffer pose for the cover issue of "Prom Dress" 99.

Pat Brand and John Casey dicuss the "mysterious elements" of the bubling punch. "C'mon Jackie, this is the song that we've been waiting for all" explains Hillary Porter.

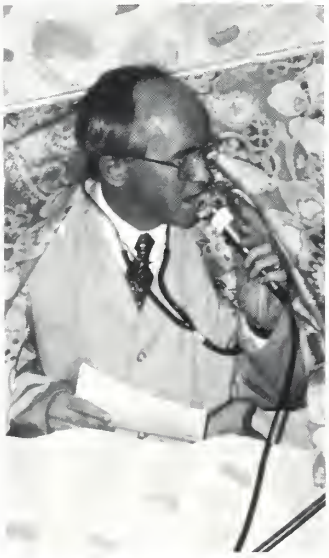
Fourteen glowing eyes above seven stretching smiles, these glamorous chicks (and Chris) practiced this SQUEEZE pose for a while! Allison Heinz and Pat Tighe hold on tight and treasure the moment. Mr. Bleiler captured two perfect smiles when he snapped a picture of Amy Cerullo and Nicole Babin.

Theresa Turner, Deanna Butler and Tamika Lewis agree that there is no better person to share such a great time with, than a friend.

It looks like it's almost time for John Boudreau's "secret get away" to the phone booth, where he will transform into Superman. A stolen glance to her "star crossed" lover across the room, Erica Muxie apparently cannot snap back into reality.

A MAN OF HONOR AND PRINCIPLE

All of us at Melrose High School have benefited from knowing Dr. Hayes. We have come to respect and admire him. Under his quiet and polite manner is a man who is dedicated to his students, teachers and his school. Not only is he a superior educator, but also a brilliant problem solver. His patience has been legendary. When lesser others would have given up, he stood up for us and fought for us. His priority has always been to provide the best education for his students. Dr. Hayes is truly a man of honor and principle.



Four years ago, you and I entered Melrose High School accepting many new challenges. Over those four years, we have grown individually, learning from both our successes and our failures, adding new friendships and losing others. Together, we have redefined a school into one with more spirit and vitality, where learning is a higher priority, and in which we are closer and healthier because we are willing to express our feelings, show we care, and demonstrate genuine support for one another. Now, you and I are moving on to different challenges and opportunities. If my leadership as principal has been any example to you, I hope I have communicated this: always give your best; make certain that you have fun as well; be willing to listen to new ideas and other opinions; take risks; and, when you truly believe in something, even if you stand alone, make your commitment and accept where life takes you. Follow your dreams, and may they all come true!

SENIORITIS!!!

TAKING A REST FROM SENIOR STRESS

What is this? Katie Sutton, Lauren Larcarno, Nadine Feraco, Pat Morris and Tricia Robichaud having fun in Mr. Hart's English class. Jackie Fillmore waits nervously for her up coming test, while Katie Rafuse remains confident after her hours of studying. Justin Iwerks is dazed, and well, a little confused.

Alisha Guertin and Kelley Flynn attempt to sneak in some last minute studying before their big test, but does Bonnie Stamegna know something know something they don't, maybe that their teacher is absent. With a smirk across his face it is quite obvious Jon Stretton is hiding something in that notebook of his.

Junior Prom '98 at the Renaissance Hotel

Jinarra Cantone and Cory Conway make their grand Hollywood entrance into the prom. Doing their best, A Night at the Roxbury, impressions are Jon Albenesse and Chris DeThomas.

"Can I help you"? Asks Pat Sherman to the photographer, interrupting his moment with Jen Choate. The Usual Suspects: Franky Mui, Carlos Sagastume, Alex Allen and Mike Pettway.

While preparations for the Melrose High School Junior Prom are underway at The Renaissance hotel of Bedford, the anxious juniors are home preparing themselves for the night that lies ahead.

As the sun begins to fade, eager couples gather with parents, family, and friends on their front lawns. After escaping an eternity of prodding parents with flashing cameras, the excited prom-goers climb into their limousines with deep sighs of relief.

As the clock nears 6:30, the couples begin to flow through the open doors and the class of '99 begins to "Party Like It's 1999."

Yasmin Khawja, Lysandra Ferentinos and Sarah Duggan show off their pearly whites, just an added touch to their glamorous looks. Forgetting about her Scoliosis, Dave Hadden continues to dip Taylor Rivers as they dance the night away.

The royal court of '98 rounds up to enjoy their minute in the spotlight. King John Morgan eyes his queen Tricia Robichaud, as they enjoy their royal dance.

Halloween, One Last Scream

Halloween Happenings at MHS

Courtney Yates quickly touches up her glam makeup before returning to the dance floor. John Kunberger has obviously had a few too many late nights . . . . studying naturally.

Swinging couple Mike Snow and Amanda Levinson show up the rest of the class with their hip new dance. Shawna MacLeod has finally gotten her chance to have her picture taken with the Mike Briggs, a.k.a. "Showerboy", John Manolian and Jen Shanahan just can't wait, their turn is up next.

Kurt Lusas threatens anyone who looks or comes near him, after all he is the Crow. Spice Girls in MHS? Jen Martin, Becky White, Carla Barranco, Carly Sullivan and Jinarra Cantone will tell you what they really really want.

Lauren Larcarno and Julie Fabiano know the buzz on everyone and thing in the café. Hey! Got a problem? Judge Judy, a.k.a. Mike Creeden, will settle it.

A shocked Eric Frederick just hopes his toga is secured tight enough before he starts a night of dancing. To find the yellow brick road in the café just ask Donald McCarthy, Rosalie Morello and Christine Agnone.

Pep Rally

above: Erin O'Leary looks pumped as she gives "three cheers for M.H.S. soccer!"

"Please, no autographs right now," Joe Merrick says as he smiles at the crowd.

Kevin Murphy tries to encourage support for the golf team, especially at their home meets at Mt. Hood.

"Pepped up" and ready to begin, Katie Sutton, Amy Barry, and Jenna Milano excitingly introduce the team captains.

Chris DeThomas and Mike Creedon start the pep rally off on a cheerful note as they conduct their favorite song, "Red Raiders."

John Casey tries to quiet down his adoring fans.

Hmmm what does Courtney Yates have on her mind, chances are its not Psychology. Dave Chavanne equals sweet and innocent, who does he think he's fooling?

THE BEST OF THE BEST

The academic side of Melrose High School ranks right up there with the cream of the crop. Representative of those students who have great academic achievements are those inducted into the National Honor Society and/or awarded at the Scholastic Awards Night. These students are in fact the best of the best.

"It's better to light just one little candle than to stumble in the dark. Better far that you light just one little candle
All you need is a tiny spark,
If we'd all say a prayer that the world would be free
Then a wonderful dawn of a new day we'd see."

National Honor Society advisor, Mr. Hart, applauds enthusiastically as Treasurer, Dave Chavanne, lights the Gold Candle representing "scholarship" in the lighting ceremony of the five candles.

As part of the closing remarks, Dr. Hayes delivers his speech filled with admiration and pride for the accomplishments of the inductees, to all the students, parents, and special guests such as Mayor Patrick Guerriero, former members of NHS, and the superintendent.

"I, as a member of the Philomathean Chapter, do pledge myself . . . ," repeat the Class of 1999's inductees to the 1998 National Honor Society as they raise their right hands to take the traditional pledge.

First Thing First

Through the years the senior portraits have not been the most exciting section of the yearbook, however they are the most important section. These portraits of the many faces that made up the Melrose High School Class of 1999 are the faces of the future. These young adults have grown and matured during their high school careers and are now ready to grow and mature in the real world. The path they choose will forever effect their lives, but for now in light of the future, first thing first . . .

Locked In Victories

Up at six, practice until five, homework at seven; the life of a student athlete is a tough one! Here, at Melrose High School, we have always had a certain group of individuals that balance both academics and athletics. We call these phenomenal individuals student athletes. Together, they have led their teams through many successful seasons. Through all of the years, our student body has seen game clinching goals scored, three point shots drained at the buzzer, and even a home run or two hit to win the game in the last inning. We, as a student body, have occasionally felt the agony of defeat along with our athletes. Those who participated might not have been league all-stars or team captains, however, their involvement in the rigorous athletic program is a magnificent accomplishment in itself. All athletes have created unforgettable memories with their teammates, and have felt a personal satisfaction with their performances that will never be experienced again. The 1998-1999 teams rocked the Middlesex League, and our athletes were some of the best in school history. MHS was a force to reckoned with in any sport and in any competition. As the years have gone by, Melrose teams have shown sensational talent and leadership. As new teams and athletes progress through the next century, nobody will ever forget the success and achievements of the 98-99 athletes. These special moments and extraordinary victories will be locked in minds of the student body, athletes and non-athletes alike, for all of history.

Swinging Into Action

The varsity softball team qualified for the tournament for the third consecutive year. Led by Coach Murphy and Coach Coughlan, the '98 softball team made it to the sectional semifinals, losing 3-1 in a hard fought game against a talented Concord Carlisle team. This was the farthest the Lady Raiders have ever been and their goal for 1999 is to play just as good or even better. The 1998 team and season were great. It ended with a 15-8 winning record. It also produced four all-Stars: Sarah Fried, Kristen Murphy, Lindsey Bakeman, and Maggie McClory and received the MIAA award for excellence in academics. Defensive standouts for the Lady Raiders were second baseman Sarah Fried, left fielder Kristen Murphy, and shortstop Sandra Swim.

Captains Kristen Murphy, Cherilyn Sestito, and Sandra Swim were great leaders on and off the field. They now leave title of captain to senior Lindsey Bakeman who will also split mound duty with junior right hander Maggie McClory. These two should be strong on the mound, and lead the team to post season play. After losing seven seniors the Lady Raiders will be looking towards returning letter winners Jenny Spinosa, Tara Stanford, and catcher Katie Mahoney for solid offensive and defensive play. Contributions are also expected from seniors Jill Conrad, April Moschella, and junior Laurie Lusas. Each one of these players should add strength and experience to this young, but talented team.

Above right: Junior Jenny Spinosa watches the pitcher as she rounds third base, to see whether or not she should continue on her journey.

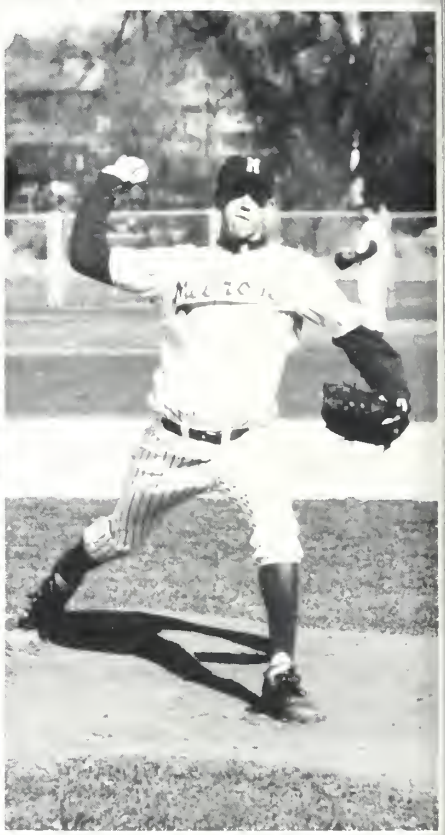
Rounding the Bases



Qualifying for the State Tournament for the fourth straight year, the 1998 MHS Baseball team had another suceessful season. The Red Raiders started off the season 2-0 before losing a heartbreaking nine inning game to Stoneham, 1-0. The team struggled in the first half of the season losing some very elose games to their opponents. Their luek, however, quickly turned around in a dramatie 5-4 victory against Wakefield. Flying through the seeond half of the season with a 9-7 reeord, Melrose had a ehanee to qualify for the State Tournament when for the first time in seven years, they swept up Wakefield.

Great pitching by Kevin Flight, timely hitting by Tim Kenty, Dave Grafton, Jim McShane, and Dan Collins, and spectacular defensive plays by Steve Turner and Scott Searles lead to a another exeiting 6-5 victory. In the Melrose Invitational Baseball Tournament, the Raiders played the #3 team in the state, Maseonomet. Both John Bleiler and Kevin Flight shut down a potent Masco line up. Then, in the bottom of the eighth, Matt Basteri's bloop single drove in Dan Collins to give Melrose one of their greatest wins in school history and proved that they ean play with anyone in the state. Melrose made it to the Emass quarter-finals for the second straight year with wins over Pentucket and #1 seed, Greater Lawrenee.

The 98 girls Spring Track team had a lot of hard workers with great determination. Despite their 2-7 record, the team made up of only four seniors should be a force next season with many talented underclassmen returning.

The team led by captains Lauren Larcano and Taylor Rivers and state competitors Katie Wallace Shawna MacLeod, Clair Larmoore, Caitlin Mead, Erin Thorpe, Rebecca Casey, and Quiana Copeland, along with the rest of the team, hope to improve on their record in the 99 season.

Above: Two main reasons for the teams success was the great sprinting ability of Clair Larmoore and Shawna MacLeod. Clair and Shawna gained timely points for the Raiders in this victory over Winchester.

Upper Right: Captains Lauren Larcano and Taylor Rivers.

Left: Many hours of hard work and practice pay off for Katie Wallace. As one of the teams top long jumpers, she knows how it's done, as she gains another first place.

Above: Captain Lauren Larcano concentrates, awaiting the gun to sound, as she prepares to dominate in the 800m. One of the teams top scorers, Lauren also qualified for the state meet.

Soaring to the States

The '98 Girls' Tennis team had a truly memorable season, making it to the State Tournament for the first time in recent years. They were victorious in the first round, beautifully defeating Peabody 4-1, but then suffered a devastating loss to Winchester 5-0. Without a doubt, the team's successful seasonal record of (10-8) reflected each player's individual effort, dedication and teamwork. Also, each player gained valuable experience, which in turn, caused the skill of the team to shine like never before. This determination and team spirit that was displayed in the '98 season has given the team high hopes for '99. Best of luck making it to the states once again!

Teaming up for Talent

The 1998 boys' tennis team had another great year to follow up their stellar season of '97. They went 11-7 again and qualified for the state tournament. Leading the way for the Red Raiders was number 1 singles player and co-eaptain Dan Kourtz (97). Following him at the number 2 singles spot was Endel Liias, who will most likely play the number one spot in '99. Also, Mike Flynn, Melrose's freshman phenom, held his ground at the number three singles spot. He will probably be the team's strongest underelassman next season. Playing doubles in '98 were the experieneed Matt Bixby and Mike Oliveira. Rounding out the best were Joe Finn ('97) and '99's tri-captain, Dan Talbot. Furthermore, 1998 was a very speeial season with the retirement of seasoned eoaeh Peter Lund. Because of the powerful returning players in '99 and the leadership of three outstanding eaptains, this team is a foree to be reckoned with!

Above left: Senior Captain Matt Bixby effortlessly sweeps up and sends out any shots that come his way. An extremely versatile player, Matt is an incredible asset in both singles and doubles matches.

Above right: Captain Dan Talbot confidently watches his opponent struggle with his near perfect ball. Showing his talent in the past playing the number 2 singles spot, he is an excellent player as well as a role model for the rest of the team.

Above: Mike Oliveira steps right up to the net to intimidate the opponent while disabling any shots that come his way.

The 1998 MHS football team was unquestionably the surprise of the Middlesex League. Led by a dedicated group of 16 seniors, the team posted an impressive 8-2 record, tied for second place in the league.

Capt. Joe Merrick provided inspirational leadership and outstanding play all season long. Junior George LeBlanc proved himself as one of the best ball carriers in the state.

The stubborn Raider defense was the best in the league with stellar performances turned in by all, including a core group of 7 outstanding seniors.

The only blemishes on the teams' record occurred in the final seconds of hard fought battles at Reading and Wakefield. The season was highlighted by an emotional victory over a very strong Belmont squad. This game was played in front of one of the largest and most enthusiastic home crowds in many years.

The '98 Red Raiders provided a season full of thrills and will surely go down in MHS football history as one of the all time best.

The 1998 Melrose High School Girls' Swim team finished the fall season with a respectable 4-5 record, the best season the team has had in the past four years. Many of the swimmers returned from last year, playing a great part in the team's success by adding strength and experience to the team. Accepting the challenge of working with a new coach, Deb Deacon, the girls came together and their hard work and dedication payed off. Seniors Taylor Rivers, Catherine Jaroszewski, Erin Donovan, Allison Adams, Courtney Sampson, Christina Fabiano, Retta Mabardy, Lisa Perno, along with tri-captains Clair Larmoore, Sweeni Kiely and Carly Sullivan worked hard to achieve many of their best times. Also many contributors to the team's success were the strong group of underclassmen. After a hard fought and victorious League Meet, the team sent eight of their swimmers to the Sectionals Championship Meet. After breaking a record in the 200 freestyle relay, Katie Doyle, Aimee Tow, Jen Scully and Courtney Morris went on to the State Meet to finish off the season. This year's team will always remember the great accomplishments made and the fun times shared. GO! FIGHT! SWIM! . . . KICK THOSE HOOCHIES IN!!

The 1998 golf season was another memorable one for the Red Raider squad. Under the leadership of Coach Rick McDermod and senior tri-captains Endel Liias, Tim Farrell, and Kevin Murphy the young Red Raider team finished a solid third place in a tough Middlesex League.

Once again Endel Liias played in the number one slot and continued to turn heads in the league and around the state. Liias capped off his four-year career with the league MVP and a third place finish in the state championships. Senior tri-captain Tim Farrell also stepped up his play during the season and contnued to impress with his steady play at the number two position. With the strong play from freshman Paul Glavin and sophomore Bill Collela the team once again qualified to move on to the state championship qualifier held at Beverly Country Club. It was at this site that the Red Raider season became especially memorable. It was here that seniors Endel Liias and Kevin Murphy turned in dual seventy-eights to qualify as individuals in the state championship. But more importantly these two scores helped qualify the team for the state championships for the first time in over fifteen years. At these championships the 1998 squad was able to turn in an impressive fifth place finish.

With much young talent in sophomores Dary Porter and Bill Collela along with freshmen Paul Glavin, Andrew Walsh and Jeff Keastner the Red Raiders look to have another solid squad next year that will be able to compete with any team in the league and through out the state.

After a grueling season in a tough league, the 1998 Melrose Red Raiders ended with a record of 4-11-3. Under the direction of Head Coach Jan Johnston, the team was also lead by the determined and enthusiastic Captain Tricia Robichaud. Despite the fact that the Red Raiders finished 8th in the Middlesex League, Melrose was a force to be reckoned with. With eight Seniors leading the pack, and League All-Stars Christine Agnone and Junior Maggie McClory, Melrose was not a team to be taken lightly.

Although the team would have liked to close with a more successful record they were satisified with their teamwork, determination, and effort throughout the season. The most important and memorable thing that these Red Raiders received this season, however, were the great friendships with eachother that will always be remembered!

The 1998 Volleyball season started with Head Coach Jeannine Cavallaro having high hopes that Senior Co-Captains Jill Conrad and Kristina Gaudet would lead her young and inexperienced team to a return to the State Tournament. After a few games the inexperience and a key injury changed high hopes to the reality of a possible long season. Although the team struggled, Coach Cavallaro, along with help from her Captains, worked very hard and never gave up. They were able to turn a dismal half of 2 and 8 into a strong second half of 6 and 4. Teaming up, Conrad and Gaudet were able to lead the team to and 8 and 12 record missing the tournament by only two games.

After completely dominating Masconomet in their last home game, teammates and fans were left wondering that if only the team had not been so inexperienced at the start of the season, would Coach Cavallaro's high hopes been accomplished. Melrose had only one player selected to represent them on the All-Star team: Jill Conrad, who in addition was named one of the six All-League Players. A special thanks to the parents and fans (Kevin Flight) who supported the team through the good and bad games. Good luck Seniors!

The Varsity Boys' Soccer team their 1998 season a disappointing 2-16. However, in spite of their record, there were plenty of highlights; one of which was being the hardest working team in the league. This hard work was what kept them in every game of the season. Another significant event was an award that the Red Raiders has never received. This award was the Sportsmanship Award. This was earned for their classiness on the field. Also, there was some excellent individual performances turned in by some of the upperclassmen. Senior tri-captain Josh Boyle was elected to first team All-Star. Senior tri-captain Keith Reid, along with senior Joe Morrissey, and junior Joe Matara earned honorable mention to All-League.

With nine returning Varsity players, a returning coach, a lot of friendship, and excellent young talent, the 1999 team will try to be only the second team is Melrose history to qualify for the State Tournament.

From Ameoba Tag, to Shipwrecked, to hour long "dance parties" on the bus, (plus, some soccer too!) who could forget about such a memorable season for MHS Girls' Soccer? Led by tri-captains Erin O'Leary, Lauren Larcano, and Jenny Spinosa, the team finished with a 3-9-6 record. Despite their skill and hard work the Lady Raiders went 0-7-2 the first half of the season. At this point, most teams would have given up, but they drew together and came back stronger than ever. By season's conclusion, the girls' had tabulated a 3-4-2 second half record. This unbelievable performance was second only to nationally ranked Winchester. Such a phenomenal turn around could only be attributed to their determination and team unity. Throughout the season, the girls could be seen laughing, talking and remaining upbeat, both times of dejection and happiness. Justly, they were eventually rewarded for their endurance. The girls of the MHS soccer team leaned on each other for support, and because of this, created a season that all fourteen team members, especially the seniors, will never forget. Next year's team, led by tri-captains Jenny Spinosa, Natasha Thorne and Katie Mahoney, should be force to be reckoned with in the Middlesex League. Best of luck to the team of '99!!

Above: Melrose knows in order to be successful you need to stay hot on the heels of your opponents. Fighting your way to the front and maintaining good position during the race will certainly lead to a strong finish.

The 1998 Boys Cross-country team had a very successful season. After losing six seniors from their League Championship Team, not much was expected from the young team. They went a respectable 4 and 5 and finished fifth in the League Meet. Also, three of their losses were by less than 5 points. Led by Co-Captains Jim Dunne and Dan Burke, the team improved greatly during the season, winning their last three meets. Sophomore Dan Lounsbury was the top runner all season, and was rewarded with League All-stars honors. Seniors Burke and Chris Matera, and juniors Jon Muollo, Nick Ward, and Dave Miller were also top runners on the team. Returning 16 of 19 runners, this group has an excellent chance of bringing the team back to the top of the Middlesex League.

These pictures say it all. Yes, cross-country is a notoriously grueling and demanding sport. We run for what sometimes seems like "forever" and run up what sometimes seems to be never-ending hills . . . And we do this all to race against the fiercest oppponent of them all - ourselves. But we enjoy being together and will never forget the team support and spirit, the care and encouragement from a teammate, the laughter and smiles that were always present. The initiative to improve ourselves came from us alone, but we could not have done it without the spirit compassion, and support of the team as a whole.

It has been a memorable season for the MHS cheerleading team. They experienced a season filled with excitement and enthusiasm. It did not matter if they were at a soccer or football game, they did their best to entertain the crowd. Tri-captains Katie Sutton, Amy Barry, and Jenna Milano served as responsible leaders and good role models for the under classmen. Seniors Katie LeDuc, Michelle Campbell, Amy Cerullo, Kelly Ballou, and Jaclyn Rotundi were always in the mood to have fun and get the crowd going. The cheerleaders' spirit traveled beyond the games and practices with toilet papering, cheering in front of the senior player' houses, and delivering candy. Their spirit also traveled to the emergency room in support of their injured teammates, Katie LeDuc, and Jaclyn Rotundi. While junior Katie Norkum was still coming out of her shell, Sarah Conti and Nicole Hirtle were not embarrassed to show their true sides. Sophomores Mary Schofield, Anna Singer, Jen Helberg and freshmen Tiffany Long and Jessica Gregorio seemed intimidated at first, but Meghan Montani was used to the seniors' antics. Their dance, which was perforemed at exhibition, was choreographed by captain Amy Barry. The cheerleaders and mascots Timmy Sutton and Sarah Gram were an inspiration to the boys on the field. The seniors are going to miss the games under the lights at MHS, but most of all they will miss their coach and friend Dottie Shea. Thanks Mrs. Shea and all the others who helped along the way.

The 98-99 basketball season was bitter-sweet for the cheerleaders. Despite the losses, the girls did their best to put a smile on the boys' faces. Captains Amy Barry, Katie LeDuc, and Jenna Milano were great leaders, managing to keep the team in line, and putting together great stunts ad cheers. The most talked about topic was guys . . . Anna's track boyfriend, the man Jen H. fell in love with at CCD, Mary's 5 month love tape, and asking Snork . . . "What about BOB??". Jen D. and Jess W. never missed an opportunity to yell for Dave C, and Jen R. just never shut up. Tiffany and Jess G. always had a witty quote or song to raise spirits. While dodging balls, driving the freshman home, showing off acrobatic skills, and checking out "older" men, seniors Katie Sutton, Michelle Campbell, Clair Larmoore, and Kristina Gaudet enjoyed a cheering season they will always remember. The team wants to wish the under classmen luck and thank their coach, Mrs. Shea, for all she's done.

THEM UP

From ad-libbing cheers to cheering for the ref., the hocky cheerleaders had yet another memorable season. While yelling "skate boys skate!!!", discussing man problems or cleaning up hot chocolate, Captains Mandy Mathews, Amy Cerullo, and Julie Fabiano were great role models for the rest of the team. Even while T.P.ing Nicole Hirtle and Sarah Conti were never caught dead with out their lip gloss, and Jess Federico never had a hair out of place. While Selena Farley had jumps everyone envied, Courtney Sampson could be heard all over the arena cheering for Kenny Lozzi. Jenn Malencheni, Lindsey Anton, and Colleen Blanchard were collectivly the team's chatterboxes, and Jenn Scully always spotted a fight first. Lindsay Depasquale could never wait for the end of a period to get her skittles. Where there was Waden or "Jack Attack", Katie Doyle was soon to follow. No-one will forget the decadent desserts at Kassie's pasta party. Jackie Cyr is by far the friendliest cheerleader ever, and Courtney Morris the cutest. Thanks to Ms. Wrenn and side kick Mr. Fogarty for their support during the season.

Although their 3-6 record doesn't show it, this years boys indoor track team had plenty of talent and a lot of respectable performances in the dominating Middlesex League.

Led by captains Dan Burke and Nick Ward, this talented team worked hard in practice and it showed in every meet. League all-star Jesse Cargill was a threat to every team in both the high jump and the hurdles. Classmate and fellow all-star Kurt Lusas made his presence known in the dash. Other major contributors on the team were Dan Lounsbury, Jon Muollo, Tom Dittmer and Kevin Murphy.

This seasoned team will lose twelve seniors who will be sorely missed. Hopefully their leadership and abilities have rubbed off on the returning underclassmen.

Above: League all-star Jesse Cargill was a dominating factor in both the high jump and hurdles. After taking his junior year off, Jesse came back stronger and more determined than ever, gathering a team high of 84 points.

*Broke school record

The Melrose High Gymnastics team once again proved their dominance in the Middlesex league in the 1998-1999 season. For the second straight year they finished runner-up in the league title. Not only did they prove themselves in the league; this year's team made Melrose history. Previous to this year the highest scoring meet in history was recorded at 128 points. In nearly every meet this season, that record was broken. In their meet against Reading, the girls reached their highest score ever, 135.7 points, shattering the earlier record.

Each individual played a vital role in the record-breaking process. Leading the team with enthusiasm were senior co-captains Laura Crosby and Theresa Turner. They established themselves as key contributors to this team's success. This team had a great deal of depth. The 2 all-around positions were shared by junior May Kourtz and sophomores Meaghan Montani and Stefani Tocco. All 3 qualified for the State competition. Also showing great versatility in all events were junior Liz Schweihs and freshman Taylor Cronin. Junior Cobi Lawson and freshman Cassie Young exhibited a great deal of progress in the vault event. They also showed teamwork by filling in any empty spots in an event. Without their consistent humor, the season would have been much more difficult. Sophomores Kristen Murphy and Nicole Labo also played a part in the success of the team.

The team had plenty of support from many people. Head coach Denise Valdez was named Middlesex League Coach of the Year for her amazing training skills. Also helping out as the unofficial assistant coach was Dave Montani. Without his help the girls could not have made it through the season. This year the Lady Raiders showed everyone that they are "A Force to be Reckoned With!"

Above: Finishing her floor routine, Junior May Kourtz glances at the camera for a quick snapshot. Competing in the all-around position, May proved her talent when she qualified for the State competition.

This season proved to be a bumpy road for the Melrose Red Raiders Wrestling squad, as illness and injury cut short their goal of becoming league champions and adding yet greater team honors to their already illustrious history. Lead by senior captains John Casey, Nick Leone, and Rich Mabee the team finished their season at an even .500 duel meet record, yet the efforts of the many seasoned veterans carried the team to a third place finish in both the Middlesex League Tournament, as well as the Division II North Sectional Tournament, and a fifth place finish in the Division II State Tournament. The team managed to put four athletes in the finals of the state tournament, more than all of the rest of the Middlesex League combined, and setting a school record. These four athletes also managed to qualify for the New England Tournament, as well as the National Tournament. Head Coach John Puleo and assistant coach Andrew "Bubba" Burns will be saying goodbye to five exemplary seniors Joe and James Mattera, John Casey, Rich Mabee, and Nick Leone.

The 1998-1999 Girls Basketball Team had a history making and record breaking season. It was a season that will surely never be forgotten. Under the direction of Head Coach Dave Brady and Captain Tricia Robichaud, the Lady Raiders finished Second in the very competitive Middlesex League with a record of 17-7: the best Girls Basketball record the school has ever seen. For the first time in school's history, the team defeated their long time neighboring rivals and defending league champs, Wakefield.

Once again, history was made when the girls earned themselves a spot in the post season tournament for the third consecutive year. Although many thought the team would not advance very far, these Lady Raiders made everybody eat their words. Seeded seventh in the tournament, the team, with the home-court advantage, beat Burlington in the first round and progressed to the second round where they matched up with Concord-Carlisle. Although C-C was favored to win, the team believed in themselves, showed up ready to play, and left with yet another victory. Moving on to the third round, the girls ended with another huge win against N. Andover.

Paired up with the top-ranked Salem Witches, the Lady Raiders advanced to the Division II North Sectional Finals held at the Tsongas Arena in Lowell. After a hard-fought battle, in front of a huge and spirited group of fans, the team ended their season with a loss to Salem. The Lady Raiders though, did not leave that arena with their heads hanging. This group of 12 talented girls left with pride knowing they gave the Melrose High Girl's Basketball Program a whole new name and image. They put Melrose as one of the top Girls Basketball teams in the state-an accomplishment to be very proud of!

To add to such a spectacular season, Senior Captain Tricia Robichaud and Junior Meghan O'Connell were chosen as League All-Stars. Also, Sophomore Quiana Copeland was chosen as both a League All-Star and as an All-League Player. Seniors Tricia Robichaud and Jenn Shanahan would like to thank the Coaches and all the players for all the great memories; they will never be forgotten! Good Luck next year!

Team Memories: Pasta Parties!! Tara's "Play Hard" shorts! Coach Ferrante's white sweats! TGI Fridays! Coach Brady's Wedding! Tricia's jumping ability! 12-packs of coke! Defensive slides!

Comprised of sixteen of the hardest working players the boys basketball team has seen in a long time, the 1998-1999 Red Raiders finished their season with a record of 7-13 under the direction of Head Coach Bill Goodwin and captain Chris McCarthy. Competing against arch rival, Wakefield, the boys completed their season with a bitter taste of dissatisfaction, as they lost their final game of the season. Despite the odds against them, the team finished with both dignity and pride. Although hopes of making the tournament were cut short earlier in the season, the team gave it their all, fought hard, and gave each and every opponent a run for their money.

Entering the Daffinee Gym for their final game of the season with hardly anything to gain, every player gave it his all and played with determination from the moment he stepped on the court to the moment he stepped off. Although the Red Raiders did not end with a victory, they did end up winning something. They won self-respect and self-gratification, knowing they stuck with it when it seemed like things could only get worse.

In every game from start to finish, the team just could not close it out. There's no doubt that the team worked hard and wanted to win, there just seemed to be one piece missing from the puzzle. Hopefully by next season, they will have found that missing link. Senior Captain Chris McCarthy and Junior Dave Marinelli were chosen to represent Melrose as Middlesex League All-Stars. Dave Marinelli received the MVP award at the All-Star game held at Reading High.

SWIMMING

This year's boy's swim team surpassed everyone's expectations. Led by a strong core of four seniors, and with the help of numerous first-year sophomores, the swimmers raced to a four and two record, and finished at third place in the league. Captains Andrew Rawson, Eric Frederick, and Ryan Dion along with senior Patrick Morris and junior Chris Bachovachin turned in outstanding performances all season long. Frederick, Dion, and Morris all qualified for Sectionals, with Frederick also qualifying for the State Meet.

)ove: Captains Paul Jacobson and Neil Manolian. Below: Senior John Bingham does a eat job of blocking this Reading opponent.

With high hopes for a repeat of last seasons tournament play, the '98-'99 hockey team played hard and with a lot of heart, but this year post season play wasn't meant to be. Led by captains Neil Manolian and Paul Jacobson, the team had many great wins and some very close 1 goal losses. They ended the season with a respectable 7-11-2 record.

The team was not at a loss of talent. Middlesex League All Stars included Paul Jacobson, Neil Manolian, Matt Koerber, Jack Thompson, and alternate Kevin McGovern. Thompson was also the team's leading scorer.

With many returning players, the team should improve in the future. Melrose Hockey is definitely making their mark in the very competitive Middlesex League.

Superintendent Of Melrose Public Schools

Dr. Charles Martin

In July, 1998 the Melrose Public Schools appointed a successor to Dr. Richard Incerto who retired after more than two decades of service to the students and parents of the Melrose school system. Our new Superintendent, Dr. Charles Martin, began his teaching career in Chelmsford and moved the following year to the Medford Public Schools where he served as a classroom teacher, assistant principal and principal of various school programs for 23 years. In 1990 Dr. Martin accepted the position of Superintendent of Schools in Rockport, Massachusetts

Dr. Martin received his Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Boston State College in 1966. He furthered his studies at Tufts University where he earned a Master's Degree in 1969. Dr. Martin completed a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study at Northeastern University in the mid 1970's, and he arned his Doctorate from Boston College.

In his 30+ years as an educator and administrator, our new Superintendent has always advocated on behalf of student learning and student growth and development, encouraging both academic and social initiatives that encourage full and appropriate student development. It is with enthusiasm, energy and a commitment to the tenets of education reform that Dr. Martin dedicates himself to the students, faculty and parents of Melrose.

Hinged Together

We all know that high school students have reputations distinguished by their grades. The freshmen are the inexperienced students while the seniors are the respected role models. This is proven untrue when individuals are brought together. MHS clubs and organizations give students a chance to do this. Whether these clubs are selling raffle tickets or planning an assembly, everyone has a say in the activity and nobody gets left out or feels ignored. This happens because MHS students know how important it is to collaborate in order to survive as one of the best organizations. The best clubs include people who hear, honor, and help one another. Most importantly, they are the ones that stay hinged together.

The Senior Student Government is made up of 18 members: Pres., VP, Sec., Treas., two reps. to the Student Council, and twelve Congress members. Its responsibilities include planning class events such as dances and other creative social events to raise school spirit, class involvement and unity, to plan fundraisers, and promote respect for the class by setting a good example for others to follow.

The Junior Student Government

The Class of 2000 began the 98-99 school year with an ever-popular Billy's Night, that was, as usual, very successful. In December, many juniors enjoyed an evening of skating on Frog Pond in Boston. That same month, the class sponsored a school-wide Penny Pool to raise money for the Melrose Red Cross. There was a "Junior Only Free Movie Night" in January with a showing of "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". The year was wrapped up with the annual Junior Prom in May

JOB SHADOW

Rising in interest among students each year, the ever popular "job shadowing" program is major proof of M.H.S.'s commitment to exposing its students to the seemingly infinite number of career options available. Under the strong leadership of Mr. Gillick, this biannual program has provided students with first-hand experience in fields that interest each individual.

In the fall, students are given the opportunity to select from a wide array of positions (detailed descriptions included) offered by the Mass. Dept. of Education. The chosen adults expose the students to a tightly structured course of their work day, discussing practically "every minute's commitment" and sincerely responding to the students' questions and concerns. Later in the spring, the highly anticipated "free choice" program occurs. Then, students express their particular interests to Mr. Gillick who seeks out an appropriate match. Mr. Gillick's determined efforts have allowed excited students to job shadow the worker of their choice, such as physical therapists, newspaper reporters, forensic scientists, or any other positions that students are eager to explore.

Although today's career might sometimes seem intimidating to students due to its complexity and "fast-pace and competitive label," this well-developed program has given students reason to believe otherwise. It has offered students valuable ways to discover what they professionally enjoy, an entirely worthwhile "first-step" which has cleared up many students' misconceptions of the "working years." M.H.S.'s job shadowing has given many students the "first link" to maturely start exploring the growing number of career opportunities available today.

Give a Cheer for Dear Old Melrose!

by: Erin O'Leary

On Wednesday, November 24 MHS students filled the Daffinee Gym with excitement and enthusiasm. The Spirit Committee, under the guidance of Vice Principals Mr. Scarpitto and Mr. Garipay, organized a pep rally that was truly one of a kind. Not only was its objective to get psyched for the Thanksgiving Day football game, but also to pay tribute to other aspects of Melrose High, including fall sports teams, band/colorguard, and the Academic Decathlon team, which were recognized by Mr. Scarpitto and Mr. Lane. Classes were divided up into sections and were seated accordingly. Unlike any other MHS pep rally, students were asked to perform skits and to participate in several tug-o-wars, all of which the Senior class emerged victorious. Seniors Tricia Robichaud and Erin O'Leary were the Masters Of Ceremonies and introduced each segment. Coach Morris acknowledged the sixteen senior football players and their stellar season of 8-2. Of course, the football cheerleaders had a major part in the organization of the rally and were recognized as well.

The administration and faculty seemed to be extremely impressed, and Mr. Lane, Athletic Director, exclaimed after the festivities were completed, "That was one of the best pep rallies that this school had ever seen!" He seemed to reflect the thoughts of the student body at large. "Pep squad leaders" Kevin Murphy, Dan Collins, Tim Farrell and their cohorts seemed to sum it up best when they yelled "Who's the best??" and the crowd proudly roared back, "MELROSE!"

THE CHESS CLUB

This year's chess club had a young but competitive team in the North Shore Interscholastic Chess League. First-board Josh Klimek and Captain Conor Sen had intense, bloody battles for the right to get demolished by the team's new coach, Mr. Henroid. Mr. Henroid brought to Melrose an infectious passion for chess. His room became an after-school hangout for students, with connected desks and ticking clocks signifying the mind-bending action that was a frequent occurrence in Room 233. Some team members even tested their skills in weekend tournaments. The results were encouraging as several students "took home the hardware," earning both trophies and respect for themselves. The chess club, however, will be remembered most not for its gaming, but rather for its fundraising. M & M wrappers were ubiquitous throughout the halls of MHS, making upperclassmen reminisce about similar blow pop debris from two years ago. Overall it was a very successful year for the chess club, and even greater achievements are hoped for next year.

Mr. Henroid displays his intense seriousness for the game.

Channel 15 of Melrose High School is a television studio that operates on volunteer students who are interested in the world and art of television. Under the new direction of Leonard A. Caplan, METV has transitioned into being a viable station on the cable dial for Melrose viewers. The studio has made countless renovations and purchases to enhance the structural framework associated with daily operation. Not a day goes by without a production team at the studio working diligently to perfect and master the edits that make the production quality of METV so entertaining. Throughout the year, Channel 15 has offered more to the Melrose High School, its students and faculty, as well as the city viewers of the channel, than ever conceived possible in the facilitie's history. With productions such as "METV In Focus", produced by graduating senior Jason Clough, "Martin on Melrose" directed by graduating senior Chris DeThomas as well as the "High Budget Big Name Show", coproduced by underclassmen David Fabricant and Alex Augot, METV covered it all in the 1998-1999 school year. Jason Clough and Chris DeThomas, both veterans in local cable access productions, served as media assistants to the Director of Operations at METV. Together, METV offered wide diversity and a set of comprehensive classes aimed at sending students onto college for study in the video field. We were fortunate to have two media assistants who also served as engineers and helpers in productions. It is the station's hope that their expertise will have had a direct impact on the younger members of this station, to inspire their imaginations and to allow METV to grow into the 21st Century.

› sing is to love and to affirm, to fly and soar, to coast into the hearts of the people who listen, ell them that life is to live, that love is there, that nothing is a promise, but that beauty exists, must be hunted for and found." -Joan Baez

With over a hundred students, Chorus has one of the largest enrollments of any activity in the high school. Two concerts a year and an annual appearance at graduation give great opportunities to "showcase" all the vocal talent at M.H.S. At times, Chorus seems to be more of a club than a class due to its many activities, including frequent trips to the Boston area musicals and annual trips to Florida and New York.

HOBY

HOBY, the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation was established in 1958 in Los Angeles, and since then it has expanded across the U.S. and abroad. The organization's purpose is to seek out, recognize, and develop leadership potential in high school studnts. HOBY sponsors state-wide leadership seminars in which motivational speakers help students realize their capability of making a difference. The emphasis on skill-building activities encourages a "positive mental attitude" and trains high school sophomores to become effective leaders in their community.

"The best of all leaders is the one who helps people so that, eventually they don't need him. The best leader doesn't say much, but what he says carrie weight. When he is finished with his work, the people say, "It happened naturally."

Project Bread

This club has gained honorable recognition for many of its accomplishments in the past four years. Not only has this dedicated group of individuals proven their commitment to feeding the community locally and nationally, but almost all of the students at M.H.S. have helped make a difference somehow. By helping to prepare a meal at a Malden soup kitchen, walking Boston's annual Walk for Hunger, or by just buying a 25¢ candy-cane at lunch, the students at M.H.S. have shown their strong devotion to this cause.

Melrose's "Derivatives" won a magnificent 1st in the "MacGuyver" event, a competition to build an on the spot ball-launching device, while Melrose's "integrals" took an impressive 3rd in "Stop the Splat," an egg-drop competition, and also a superb 1st in the "Kinetic Art" event for building a water wheel contraption with a card-gaming theme which moved on its own for two minutes. This is Melrose's second year in the competition, coached by physics teacher and physics fanatic, Miss Amy Picard.

Student Council

"For the students, by the students . . . " The 1998-1999 Student Council led by tri-presidents Taylor Rivers, Lauren Larcano, and Erin O'Leary fearlessly battled with their underclassman officers to give the student body a year that they would not forget. Unfortunately, the Council was met with many obstacles due to an ongoing deadlock between the teachers and city officials over contract renewal. Thanks to the steadfast support of advisers Mr. Schott and Mr. Savarino, the Student Council was able to complete community service projects, events and fund-raisers that they will be proud to look back upon in retrospect. Although some school-wide events that the Council has planned in the past years did not happen in the fall of '98, (such as a school-wide dance) the student body appreciated the way their elected officials persisted and planned a spectacular 1998-1999 school year.

School Improvement Council

Under the strong leadership of Dr. Hayes, this dedicated council has brought about many major improvements to the high school. This group is composed of a PTO Representative, four students from each grade, four parents, and four community representatives. In addition, its members include four volunteer teachers. Under the Education Reform Act, this group has been empowered to initiate changes and deal with issues at the high school.

The Scar (a found poem)

I was a young girl in China life began in cold hallways and tall stairs
in the large house
I heard stories of a ghost
and many more from Popo
my father a big painting
hanging in the hall
my mother
my own face
looking back at me
between us
dark, boiling soup rocking slowly
anger pouring all over me
my flesh began to burst
terrible choking, painful tears
The pain of flesh is nothing
you must peel off your skin
until there is nothing
NO scar
NO skin
NO flesh

The MHS Drama Club became very familiar with one word this year - change. We changed directors, changed plays . . . the list goes on and on. Despite all we had to overcome, though, the Drama Club has kept the amazing spirit and sense of family that it always had. Each year, we participate in the Massachusetts Drama Guild Competition, taking home many awards for acting and tech. The Drama Club was relieved this year to ditch the mountainous sets for a fence to bring to competition "The Lottery." (Sorry Persephone). We express much thanks to Nick Liacoupolos, Mrs. Beliveau, our technical director Mr. Beardsley, and our new directors Mr. McClymer and Ms. Hiti. Now, can someone tell me the way to Martin's store?

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF A GOOD LEADER

1. Believe in something other than yourself.
2. Listen to others.
3. Work as a team, never as a loner.
4. Be considerate of different opinions.
5. Stand for what you believe, even when criticized
6. Be a peacemaker.
7. Be patient with other people
8. Make few promises, but keep the promises you make
9. Work hard
10. Thank people for what they do.

We are the essence of good leaders.

Peeking Into The Future

As the seniors graduate from M.H.S., leaving their strong memory as an influence to the underclassmen, we take a peek into our own futures and wonder what awaits us. With the coming of the next millennium we will develop our identities as members of our class and as individuals to create a legacy of our own. Just as we take a peek into our futures, we also remember the memories of the past years and take the responsibility to lead the way for the future underclassmen. Although we are now only peeking into the future, it will not be long until we are living it.

German American Partnership Program

GAPP students take time out of their busy schedule to pose for a group photo while on a tour of historic Koeln (Cologne). Pictured in random order are group members Lyndsey Anton, Brian Herlihy, John Casey, Jennifer Quigley, Gregory Deems, Jeffrey Coots, Michael Doerrer, Lauryn Quinn, Eric Frederick, Brian Toney, Matthew Baline, William Klemm, Niklas Tower, Stefan von Imhof, Celine Hunt, Lisa Parsons, Amy Cerullo, Allison Adams, Louise Welling, Lorraine Beane, Mark Drauschke, and Andrew Rawson.

Participating in the GAPP Program had a significant impact on many of its members. The friends they met and the experiences they shared will remain with them for many years. The exchange gave its participants a new sense of independence. The sights, people, and introductions into German culture instilled many with a new respect for both their own culture and that of foreign nations. It was a thoroughly stimulating month abroad for all.

Life in the city of Hamburg was far from dull. The GAPP students attended class regularly at GOA (Gymnasium Oberalster), took many trips to famous cities throughout Germany, and communicated, in German, with many of their foreign peers. Whether it was observing the rituals of Easter Fire or hanging out at die Schleuse, there was always something to do.

Above: GAPP's fearless Leiterin, Dr. Dragonas, does her best to capture every moment of her students' trip, which she will later use to blackmail them. Special recognition should be given to Dr. D, without whom the program would not exist. "Hey, no dice in paradise". Thanks Dre.

Spain Trip

The Spain trip was held during the week of February vacation and was a week-long cultural experience that the participants will never forget. Nineteen high-schoolers and four adults, headed by Mrs. Wheeler, tangoed in the lively Spanish streets. Madrid, Toledo, and Barcelona were the cities that were visited. Cafe Y Te was one of the most popular places to go to in Spain, while the most spectacular views could only be found high atop Montserrat. The long plane ride of seven hours was much worth the wait.

Left: The group poses briefly in front of a sc nic overview one last time before we head o the rapids. Above: Hot, sweaty, and tired aft trailblazing their way through the jungle, Ei del Lilas and Dan Pesaturo can still smile an appreciate the beauty of their surroundings.

Left: Braided beauties Erin O'Leary and Lauren Larcano stop to flash their million dollar smiles as they happily relax on their first couch that they have seen in eight days. Right: "Yeah, well I did not want to snorkel anyway . . . " Lauren O'Hara says to Laura Crosby as they agree to use up the film in everybody's underwater cameras to take pictures of themselves.

Above: "So tell me, how is everybody and what goes on at night anyway? . . . . . " asks Mr. DiSanto, our concerned "Dad for a Week" while Christina Fabiano reassures him that everything is going wonderfully. (Look at the smile-it says it all!) Left: Alison Johnson displays her maternal instincts as she picked up Daniella before breakfast and did not let her go until three days later.

Above. "All I know is that I have been eating riceandbeans for three meals a day and for eight days straight . . . I'm hungry and I need a change. Sorry froggy . . . " Kurt Lusas stalls for one last picture before his midnight snack.

Mrs. Cocchiara takes a break from class for a quick picture.

Benvenuti a Liceo Galvani. For two weeks in October Melrose families hosted Italian students from the Liceo Galvani in Bologna, Italy. The Italian students stay included seeing the sights of Boston, a visit to Salem, MA., to trip to Marconi beach, and a look into American life. In April Melrose students got their own peak at Italian life. Living with their Italian amici the Americans experienced Bologna, Rome, Florence, and the gondolas of Venice. Lisa Perno summed up the exchange best saying "It is an experience I'll remember forever and I made friends I'll never forget."

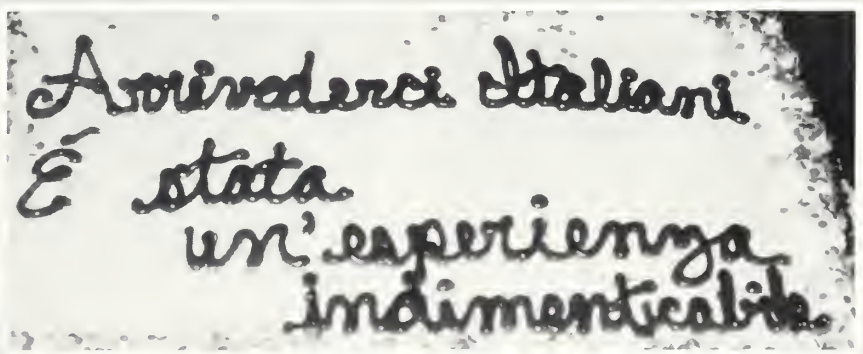
Courtney, Lisa, and Micol, take a breal from exploring the underwater world of the Aquarium.

The Bologna students teach Jessica Cataldo the fundamentals of Italian soccer.

On a day trip to Salem, students take a quick stop for hot chocolate.

After a long day new friends find time to fool around.

On a frigid fall day Italians and Americans enjoy the sun on Marconi beach.



The Key To Our Success

The Melrose High School yearbook depends on the participation of the community of Melrose. The support of the local businesses and students at MHS has been the key to our success this year. Without all the enthusiasm put forth from everyone, such a quality yearbook full of captured and saved memories would not have been possible. The business staff would like to extend many thanks to the many local businesses that purchased ads. We would also like to thank the seniors of the Class of 1999 who participated so wholeheartedly in making their ads creative. Due to so much generosity from the community as a whole, the Log staff was able to create a book that will be locked into and stand out among all the past yearbooks as the best yet. We have saved the best for last!

You hear a shriek, some complaining, scurrying around those two suffocatingly small glass triangles of rooms on the top of that long blue-rugged staircase. Two croppers for twenty people. No cropping pencils, layout sheets bled to all blue borders. Size to fit. No, scratch that, call it Art 1. Cap A. Copy Z. Make it 24 pt., No- 48 pt., we want the title big. What the hell, make it 90 pt. Put a black toolbar, ghost the picture 30%. One plea between positions. This cropper's broken. Why is this room so messy? Mr. DiSanto just vacuumed it. Pictures. Pictures. Pictures. Sunday 6-8 pm - Resource Center. Go in through the Loading Dock. Don't let the door lock behind you. Joey's being annoying - go tell him to be quiet. The proofs are back: Remember - "Delaying the return of these proofs for more than 3 whole days will cause a delay in the production of your yearbook." Oh, I didn't know - I've had these Faculty pages for 4 weeks! How much does it cost to Fed-Ex this? Mr. DiSanto, we can't cut down the number of pages - It's at 256 right now. Have to cut some sport pages, no, some club pages, no the ads. Tom's coming in 10 minutes. Let's pretend we're sick. Where's Mr. Bleiler? Thirteen kids haven't had their pictures taken yet. Need to get every senior in the yearbook. Forget the underclassmen. No, they're just as important. What do you mean you didn't index your pages? Did you know that 1 out of 3 members on yearbook staff ends up dropping out every year? There's only 50 days left of school for seniors. That means yearbook's almost over. That means no more meetings. That means we can get some sleep. That means having a life. That means . . . That means we can enjoy all our hard work when we get those beautiful pages back, bound into a book. OUR yearbook. Log '99 Staff: Thanks for all your hard work throughout this year and in definitely making it all worth it. You're the Best!

. . . AND, OUR WORK HERE IS DONE!

We know who we are . . .

We are the champions, the dreamers, the lovers, the doers, the movers, the shakers . . . and we will rock you. Hard.

We were children of the 80s with our transformers, our thundercats (Thundercats HO!), the smurfs, Jem and Barbie.

We remember a time before Barney, before Teletubbies, before Furbies, before Tickle Me I'm Elmo, before Saddam Hussein, before the Oklahoma City bombing . . .

In the past four years, we have grown from dorky little freshmen to big rough and tough seniors.

We have grown together, we have grown apart.

We have played important roles in each other's growth, and we may not even know it.

In June, we will graduate and we may never see some of our classmates again.

But that doesn't mean that we're not a family.

We are all connected in a fine web known as the Class of 1999.

The last high school senior class of the 1900s.

Who knows what will happen to us all in the 21st Century?

Anything could happen, because we are the Class of 1999 and when we put our hearts to something, we can get it done.

Good Luck, Class of '99!

-Author unknown

We have "Saved the Best for Last"

The Closing

The Class of 1999 has proven that the "best comes last." Our four years at M H S have not been a competition to "beat" the accomplishments of past classes to claim the title "Save the Best for Last." The only expectations we were trying to live up to were our own. Much like a "safe," the walls of M H S have allowed everyone of us to build up our own "treasures" by enriching our minds, skills, and personalities. As individuals, we have progressively "built up" our stores of knowledge and skills and worked together as a class to share these strengths. We have succeeded in bringing out the best in ourselves, our friends, our teachers, and our successors.

As early as freshmen, we felt privileged to know that someday we would leave M H S. as "the last class of the millennium." But it took four years of learning experiences to feel the true "strength" of this special departure. Our unprecedented accomplishments and strong class unity will serve us well as we gear up for the new millenium. The administration, teachers, and community will remember our class not as merely "the last class of the millennium," but as the best class of the millennium. We have proudly succeeded in living up to the "label" that so appropriately matches our year of graduation, "Save the Best for Last."

Good Luck, Class of 1999!

The Last Page.
